

Brief Profile of Shri M.K. Srinivas,
Chairman, Ganga Flood Control Commission

Shri M.K. Srinivas graduated in Civil Engineering from Osmania University, Hyderabad and did his Masters degree in Structural Engineering from Indian Institute of Science (IISc), Bengaluru.

Presently he is working as Chairman, Ganga Flood Control Commission, Patna under Department of Water Resources, River Development and Ganga Rejuvenation (DoWR,RD&GR), Ministry of Jal Shakti, Government of India.

He joined the Central Water Engineering Service in 1988 as Assistant Director. He has over 34 years of experience in the field of Water Resources Development and Management.

During his career, he has held important positions such as:

- Chairman, Ganga Flood Control Commission (GFCC)
- Director General, National Water Development Agency (NWDA)
- Member Secretary, Polavaram Project Authority (PPA)
- Chief Engineer, Central Water Commission (CWC)
- Chief Engineer, National Water Development Agency (NWDA)
- Director, National Water Academy, Pune

Some of his areas of expertise are:

- Flood Management in Ganga Basin
- Inter Basin Water Transfer (Inter linking of rivers)

- Implementation of National Project (Polavaram Irrigation Project)
- Hydrological Observations and Flood Forecasting
- Hydrological Data Processing
- Application of Geomatics in Water Resources Development and Management (WRD&M)
- Appraisal of Water Resources Projects and Flood Management Schemes
- Monitoring of Water Resources Projects and Flood Management Schemes

As DG, NWDA he organised the 6th India Water Week in 2019, which is the largest International event in Water Sector in India.

He has authored about 45 technical papers, which were presented in various International and National events.

He visited countries like USA, UK, Nepal and The Netherlands for Conferences and Meetings.